International Community of Breeders of Asexually Reproduced Horticultural Varieties

JOIN CIOPORA

CIOPORA is based on the shared belief in the value of innovation for the green sector and the importance of Intellectual Property (IP) for plants for the sustainable development of horticulture. Since 1961, CIOPORA has been UNITING BREEDERS behind its mission to advance and harmonize the systems of IP protection for plants worldwide, including Plant Breeders' Rights, Patents, Plant Patents and Trademarks.

CIOPORA membership is open to breeders and title-holders of asexually reproduced horticultural varieties, comprising the 2/3 of its member base, their associations, horticulture professionals active in the area of IP asset commercialization, and IP lawyers and law firms.

Join our global breeder community and take advantage of the exclusive benefits CIOPORA offers to its members:

WHAT WE DO

CIOPORA works on continuous improvement and harmonization of systems of Intellectual Property (IP) protection for plants worldwide:

IP ADVISORY

CIOPORA works on strengthening the systems of IP protection for plants by advising governments on the content of laws and effective enforcement.

REPRESENTATION

CIOPORA represents plant breeders, promotes and lobbies for their interests before international organizations, governments and industry groups.

MONITORING

CIOPORA continuously monitors and reports on the global developments in IP for plants as well as the areas of biotechnology and biodiversity.

EDUCATION ON IP

CIOPORA educates all actors of the horticultural value chain on IP for plants and its economic significance via the CIOPORA Academy program.

COORDINATION

CIOPORA initiates, runs and coordinates member projects and actions, including enforcement, and facilitates networking and business development.

COMMUNICATION

CIOPORA compiles, communicates and promotes comprehensive positions on IP and informs its members about important developments in IP worldwide.

Why join CIOPORA? Three reasons for you and your boss:

1. WE ADVOCATE: even if you are not a member yet, we are already working to improve the IP protection of your varieties. Join us to support our work!
2. WE CONNECT: every now and then you might need legal advice from one of the handful experts on IP for plants in the world - many of them are our members.
3. WE EDUCATE: IP for plants is an extremely technical subject. Learning and knowing more about IP with CIOPORA strengthens your business in the long run.

TESTIMONIALS

Wendy Cashmore, Representative of Trajectory 762 Limited,
New Zealand:

"Plant breeding is a diverse and ever-evolving business. CIOPORA enables its members to be at the leading edge by fostering crop sections and championing learning on IP for plants through the CIOPORA Academy. Sitting directly at the table with international policymakers, such as UPOV and government legislators, CIOPORA cultivates a passion for plant innovation and its effective protection worldwide."

Erin Wallich, Research Program Manager at Summerland Varieties
Corp., Canada:

"Our small breeding company is actively creating processes for enforcing IP rights for our protected varieties around the world, which is a major challenge given the complexity of our industry and the varied laws of each country. CIOPORA provides access to a global network of highly knowledgeable professionals who are involved in similar activities and willing to share their valuable experience and best practices."

Michael Danziger, Chair of the Board at Danziger "DAN" Flower
Farm & CEO at Danziger Innovations, Israel:

"In its dialogue with growers and trade, CIOPORA continuously stresses the importance of new and improved varieties for the sustainable development of the green sector. Furthermore, CIOPORA represents our interests before CPVO and UPOV and advocates for such important issues as regulation of DUS testing, the use of DNA in enforcement activities, and Essentially Derived Varieties."

CONTRIBUTION SCHEME

BREEDER, TITLE-HOLDER & AFFILIATE MEMBERS:

CIOPORA contributions by breeder, title-holder and affiliate members consist of a basic fee and a turnover-related fee. The turnover-related fee* is calculated on the basis of the company's annual income from breeding and/or royalties as well as from any other activity related to asexually reproduced horticultural varieties.

Category	Annual turnover	Basic fee	Turnover related fee	Annual total 2021
1	< € 1 mil	€ 1.375	€ 0	€ 1.350
2	€ 1 - 2,5 mil	€ 1.375	€ 1.375	€ 2.750
3	€ 2,5 - 5 mil	€ 1.375	€ 2.750	€ 4.125
4	€ 5 - 10 mil	€ 1.375	€ 4.125	€ 5.500
5	€ 10 - 25 mil	€ 1.375	€ 5.500	€ 6.875
